January 2014

You wouldn't know it with this innocent face, but Andrew had several chocolate bars holed up in his pockets!

There's nothing innocent about these faces!

Duncan strikes a pose... Welcome back CJ!

Josiah and Chris play hide-and-seek... do you think we should tell them we can still see them...???

Deena goes for the "Welsh Barmaid" look — and succeeds!

BIG THANKS TO THE CHEFS, SETTER-UPPERS AND CLEANER-UPPERS WHO MADE IT ALL POSSIBLE!! AND THE ONES PAYING THE BILLS!

That's more like it. A bit of decorum to the left amongst the madness of the rest of us DRC'ers!

Hang on a minute... I thought Trudy's father was the one called Rocky... how come it's Trudy with the black eye????!!

Luncheon continues...

Why are we waiting...

Never mind "Where's Wally"... Where's Santa? Ohhh! There he is! Right at the back...

William LOVES the camera—can't say the same about Malcolm though... or is it the glare of joyfulness beaming from Santa-Roy?

NP clients Josh and Theo (and Theo's mum Lucille).

I'm Santa's little helper!

So here's Monique... She's supposed to be at the table with Josh & Theo!! Kay is looking a wee bit surprised to be snapped by our camera-happy crusader DEEP in conversation, the lads are plotting something... Next visit to the RSA perhaps??

Turning Point

Blair is taking a quiet moment to contemplate what to put on his plate... while Wendy hussles in the background...

Cushla and her daughter Andrea are here with ex-TP/current-NP client Robert. Oohhh look, there's Santa again!

Nick is at peace with himself but not with the photographer it would seem... William is looking very much like a very dapper waiter at a high-end restaurant. Alisa is lost in the moment.

Anyone would think that Tom was in a hurry to get to the bar.... BUT, he's not, he's just manoeuvring his way through the tables for some more networking.

Ricci sorts out the 3 stooges leaving Christine and Alisa as the roses between the thorns...

Then I said...
Actually, I better get back to Geoff...

Chelsea was at the lunch with her friend Annaliese. Darn sunlight mucked up photo.

Turning Point

It looks harmless doesn't it... just scooping out some honey....

BUT LOOK AT WHAT THEY DID WITH THE MIXTURES!
