

Community Participation UPDATE

September 2015

Kiel is always happy Turning Point to see his coordinator Sariah...

Jane, Beth and Graeme proudly show off their 'tip' badges that go onto their belts.

Once they get enough of these they go up a belt colour so this is awesome!

Chris (CJ) on the other hand was NOT happy when he took the "Ladies Group" Session...

HARD AT WORK

When am I going to get the call from Tyra???

Richard is playing Simon Says – but Roy just doesn't get it!

Daniel loves going to RDA and now he gets to spend the whole day there every Monday as he is now a volunteer for them.

Daniel gets to work with his friend Duncan on a Monday — and he also gets to ride the horses from time to time.

Check out the lads on the left. Don't they look great in their hi-vis vests? This is what they wear when they do the pamphlet deliveries for the police—and they get to go in the blue community patrol police car!!!

Eunice, Holly and Waretini out enjoying the sunshine with the ducks

Lunch time at Scopze—Jane helps Waretini with his lunch. What's on the menu Jane???

Turning Point

Bus trip to Te Papa

Can't wait for the fish n chips!

Saturday
15th Aug.
6.45am
to 8pm!

NZ's next top model striking a pose...?

No, silly... its not apricot jam—it's a bomb!

THE DRC TRIP TO TE PAPA 2015

On Saturday 15 August, a whole entire bus load of clients from Turning Point packed a luxurious 45 seater bus at 6:45 on a very grey morning and headed off to Wellington for the day. We had a lovely bus driver named Jan, who told us a few interesting tales on the way down.

Our first stop was Dannevirke, where a lot of people needed to use the restroom and some naughty people wandered off and got a coffee, when we were instructed "ONLY STOPPING FOR A TOILET STOP." After our quick stop in Dannyvegas, we made our way to Wellington, through the Manawatu and Kapiti Coast.

As the bus shot through the Urban Motorway, we were greeted by the MOST INCREDIBLE view of the City and Harbour. Then after our gaze, we headed on to Lambton Quay and then right into the bus park right outside the Museum.

When we all came off the bus, walked right up to the entrance and were greeted by our tour guide, Shawn, then made our way to the ANZAC exhibition. Thank God groups can skip the queue, because it seemed to be that there were more people lining up to see it than people living in Havelock. So yeah, you would be waiting a very LONG TIME!!

We were ALL AMAZED by this exhibition. The sculptures are ABSOLUTELY ENORMOUS and just so life like it is just unreal. I was taken aback at how well done the Weta Workshop had done at what they had put together. It made the old war days really sink in and how fortunate Australia and New Zealand are to have such honorable fore-fathers. If they didn't fight, most of us wouldn't be here, so full respect to those men and women who made their sacrifices.

After our viewing of the ANZAC exhibition, people went on their own little wanders. I went and enjoyed a walk around the harbour, even though it was a miserable day, but I still loved having a look at Wellington. The city that beats Auckland HANDS DOWN!!

As it struck 20 minutes to 3, we all boarded the bus and headed back to Hawkes Bay, (via) Kapiti Coast and The Manawatu, yet again. We stopped in Woodville for our Fish 'n' Chips and a piece of chocolate cake/ caramel slice. After that, we headed back to Hastings, got back just after 8 and ALL WENT HOME.

THANK YOU TO EVERYONE WHO MADE THIS EXPERIENCE POSSIBLE.

IT WAS AWESOME!!!

Liam Warner

