MasterChef @ DRC

A stand out and well worth
1ST PRIZE!!!

“Spicy potato wedges, crispy and fresh, coated perfectly—with a nice kick to them...”

Peter & the Wolf

Who let these three loose!!???
Rachel, Trudy and Karen were out on the town in Napier one afternoon. They were gifted some concert tickets to the NZ Symphony Orchestra's rendition of "Peter and the Wolf" and they said it was wonderful.

Rachel and Trudy are also learning all about Haiku Poetry. ("Haiku" is a traditional form of Japanese poetry. Haiku poems consist of 3 lines. The first and last lines of a Haiku have 5 syllables and the middle line has 7 syllables. The lines rarely rhyme.)

See examples below and next time we'll share Rachel and Trudy's Haiku poems... watch this space....

Lex has been doing some work experience at the Funky Farm at 236 State Highway 2, Mangateretere.

Lex absolutely loves helping out at the Funky Farm—not only feeding the animals but helping out in general.

Wow!

Chris and his coordinator Kelle spent many hours restoring a bike for his sister Maia.

Chris was so excited when it all their hard work was completed and Maia was delighted with what is essentially a brand new bike!

Graeme has a new belt in Karate. Very impressive Graeme.

Deena's been busy winning trophies! She is proudly showing off her 10-pin bowling trophies she has scored of late. Well done Deena!
