DRC
living life connected

Hi everyone - welcome to another enthralling edition of some of the things happening at DRC and around the Community with the Turning Point and Scopze Services.

By the way, our LOGO has changed - see top right hand corner (looks cool doesn't it?) - AND we are now known as "DRC" rather than the full "Disability Resource Centre (HB)Trust"... (although that is still our legal name).

Some of the staff got together and we decided on the byline "Living Life Connected" because that is what we equip people we support to do every day.

Pottery has been the latest talent that can be added to the résumés of Susan, Stephen, Beth and Duncan. The results speak for themselves....
Cuppa anyone?

Happy reading!

Alison :)

One of our Turning Point clients AJ wrote a lovely poem for her best friend Sophie. Here it is below (thanks for sharing this with us):

To my best friend Sophie... The poem is called “Birthday Wishes”

Within you, I have found the perfect friend.
Someone who I know will be there till the end.
And they're not just thoughts I hope will fulfil,
But thoughts that will stand forever still.

Still as the wind on a hot summer's day.
Still as your friendship I'll never betray.
Still as the characters in a photograph.
Still as your breathless, silent laugh.

Within you, I have found the perfect friend.
A mind that I can comprehend.
A person I see is so much me,
A mutual relationship so carefree.

Carefree as a child who questions the world.
Carefree as a scream that goes unheard.
Carefree as an adult blessed with a dream.
Carefree as water flowing down stream.

Within you, I've found the perfect friend,
With whom I can be real, and never pretend.
You've always been someone unique from the rest,
You hold a piece of me no other can possess.

Within you is reason to live every moment in time.
Within you the life I want is always mine.
Within you, I have the perfect friend,
With you, I see myself till the very end.

From your best friend AJ

Chad made Destiny a “Thanks for helping me at 10-pin” card.

Is that Sadie??? NO!!! It's Johnnie hard at work cleaning the oven! LOOK MUM - get him to do this at home!

Rachel asked me to publish the below photos, which are photos of Rachel holding a photo of Rachel and her mum Peggy and their award winning budgie....

Jane and Graeme attended the Kupa International Martial Arts School's Tournament and won some certificates. Some really good action shots here....

Work in progress!!
